

Jessica (Arael) Marrocco

Biography

Akashic Record Reader, Past Life Regressionist, Psychic / Intuitive, Medium, life coach, Meditation teacher, Storyteller and inspired writer for children and adults.

Jessica (Arael) Marrocco has been a student of western and eastern religions for over 20 years. She is a psychic / intuitive who experiences modes of clairvoyance, clairaudience and past-life information; all of which are instrumental in creating an experience of karmic clearing and growth.

Jessica is also an inspirational writer for children and adults; and published three anthologies of children stories relating to our environment called Green Stories for Green Children part 1 & 2 and Green Stories for Green Cities, that highlights the historical city of Boston.

She is the published Author and Illustrator of Macabre, Short Stories and Poems From the Other Side. This is a collection of channeled short stories for adults who enjoy the experience of mystery, supernatural events, and mystical happenings that were gleaned from historical events or notable characters.

Her most recent book, THE SEER, Violets in the Grass (Balboa Press/Hay House) is a fictional story about a woman who enters non-ordinary space throughout her life and discovers some secrets about why this happened. It is during a past life regression when she recalls a moment when she entered a portal while picking violets in the grass as a child.

Jessica is the founder of New Life Endeavors, a journey meditation class that helps people expand their awareness, problem solve and discover non-ordinary realities for spiritual enlightenment.
